U. S. MUST RESPECT STATES' "DRY" LAWS

Supreme Court Breathes New Force Into Webb-Kenyon Liquor Bill.

In the broadest possible manner, the Supreme Court yesterday upheld the constitutionality of the Webb-Kenyon law, divesting intoxicating liquor of all interstate commerce immunity when billed to a dry State in violation of State laws. The decision makes it possible to bar from dry States liquor which heretofore has been taken in safety under the guise of "interstate commerce."

Chief Justice White rendered the decision which held that the West Virginia dry law, in conjunction with the Webb-Kenyon law, would operate to prevent the shipment into West Virginia of all liquor violating the State law.

The court sustained lower court decisions which refused to force the Western Maryland Railroad Company and express companies to accept liquor in Maryland for shipment into West Virginia.

The court held that Congress was clearly within its constitutional authority in enacting the Webb law, and that its enactment gave full force and effect, as to liquor bound for West Virginia, to the West Virginia dry law.
Chief Justice White was emphatic in declaring that the police power of the States to regulate the liquor traffic was well founded in law.

Prohibition workers were enthusiastic over the decision last night. Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, who assisted in the argument of the case, said:

"The decision is a great victory for law enforcement. The States may now prohibit the receipt, possession, sale and use of intoxicating liquors and be hampered by the agencies of interstate commerce acting as bartenders to bring the liquor into the State."

Relief comes instantly.
A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripp misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.
It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, fever, inches, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.
Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure to get the genuine.
